For a second year the Heritage Center is offering hand-dipped chocolates by local artisan chocolatier, Susan Richman!

Susan Richman's delicious chocolates have a devoted following and Susan annually shares them with a very select group, including the Heritage Center's staff. As they are the best chocolates imaginable, we want to make them available to you.

They will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Only 50 pounds are available. Order now.

All proceeds benefit the Heritage Center's educational programs.

To Reserve Your Order:

Complete the order form below and send it to the Heritage Center of Lancaster County, 13 West King Street, Lancaster, PA 17603. Orders also may be faxed to the Heritage Center at 717-299-6916, or emailed to sream@lancasterheritage.com.

All reservations must be received by February 9, but we may sell out before then. Again, only 50 pounds are available.

You will be notified by email or daytime phone if your order can be completed. Payment information will accompany that message.

Orders may be picked up in the Heritage Center Museum's lobby at 5 West King St. on February 11 between the hours of 9am and 4:30pm. Orders over $150 may be delivered by prior arrangement.

Order Form:

Assortments are available in 1/2 pound and 1 pound boxes. For each item below, please indicate if you would like the assortments to include nuts or liqueur chocolates (brandied cherry cordials, cognac truffles). Unless specifically requested, the assortment will not contain any of these special varieties. Any variety, however, may contain trace amount of peanut or tree nuts, so should not be consumed by persons with allergies to these ingredients.

The typical assortment includes predominantly dark chocolate. If you prefer milk chocolate to dark, please indicate this on your order.
